

The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Esq; Governor in Chief, and Captain General, in and over His Majesty's Province of SOUTH CAROLINA.

The ADDRESS of His Majesty's Council, met in General Assembly.

May it please Your Excellency,

WHILE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of this Province, now met in General Assembly, unwilling that the Public should suffer Detriment or Inconvenience by any Delay, in a Matter which requires the greatest Expedition, take this Manner, and this Opportunity, of laying before Your Excellency our Advice, upon an Affair which hath been thought by Your Excellency, by the Council, and by the Assembly of this Province, to be of the greatest Importance to secure His Majesty's Southern Colonies and Dominions on the Continent of America.

As His Majesty has some Time ago signified His Royal Commands to Your Excellency, that a Fort should be built in the Over Hills Cherokees; and the Sum of Two Thousand Pounds Sterling being provided towards carrying the same into Execution; our Duty to His Majesty and this Province, particularly calls us, on this Occasion, to advise the taking such Measures as shall with the greatest Frugality effect the Service proposed, without which, we are of Opinion, that the same will prove abortive, or be insufficiently executed.

In order that Your Excellency may receive the most mature Advice on this important Affair, We desire Your Excellency will please to cause to be laid before His Majesty's Council, a Plan of such Fort as may be proper, as well as an Estimate of the Number of Men, and the Names and Stations of the Officers, who are to be charged with the Direction and Execution of this Work, in a proper Choice whereof the Success greatly depends, that they may judge of the Expediency and Propriety of the Measures for effectuating the same, and give Your Excellency their Advice accordingly.

By Order of the House,

JOHN CLELAND.

19th February, 1756.

On Miss DOLLY S**

ASSIST, ye greater Bards assist,
 Display sweet Dolly's Charms;
 For I'm unequal to the Task,
 And Love my Force disarms.
 How could I, thus confus'd, describe
 That shape! that Air! and Grace!
 Her mild Address, that pleasant Voice,
 Each Beauty of her Face?
 The polish'd Jewel fix'd in Gold,
 All nicanet Stones outvies;
 Yet faintly shines, it but compar'd
 With Dolly's sparkling Eyes.
 With Raptures on her milk-white Breast
 A Phœbus might recline:
 And could the Ladies shape their Hands
 They'd sample take from thine.
 Majestic as a Queen, she steps,
 From Affectation free,
 With rural Modesty bedeck'd,
 And plain Simplicity.
 The Bees, from Flow'r to Flow'r that rove,
 And fragrant Honey sip;
 Might yet a greater Sweetness find,
 On Dolly's cherry Lip.
 But oh! desist, bold Man desist;
 Thy Labour's all in vain;
 For, couldst thou paint Ten Thousand Charms,
 Ten thousand still remain.

CHARLES-TOWN, March 11.

Several Vessels have arrived here since our last from the West Indies, and from North America, and as they give no Accounts of Arrivals from any Ports of England, for the same Time that we have had none, it may reasonably be supposed that an Embargo has been laid on all the Shipping there.

Capt. Riddall, arrived here from Jamaica, in his Passage from thence, about a Fortnight ago, met with His Majesty's Ship Gariand, commanded by Capt. Arbuthnot, going for Providence, with two French Captures, (a Snow and a Sloop) laden with Sugar, Indies, Coffee, &c.

Several Persons being admitted to see the Woman confined in our Goal on Suspicion of having murdered her Bastard Child, Thursday Evening she made her Escape from thence, by disguising herself as a Man and passing for one of her Villains; and we don't hear that she has been even pursued.

Last Sunday Morning a fine Female new born Infant was found, by its Cries, laid under a House on Trot's Point.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Charles-Town, March 18, 1756.

AGREEABLE to the Directions of an Act of the General Assembly of this Province, for regulating the Affairs of BREAD, I have enquired the Price of FLOUR, and find it to be at Five Pounds per Hundred Pounds Weight; at which Price the Half-Crown Loaves are to weigh as follows,

White 2 lb. 0 oz. Wheaten 3 lb. 0 oz.
 Household 4 lb. 0 oz.

William Pinckney, Commissary-General.

Mr. Michael Coineau, of St. James's Sauter, advertises a black horse horse, about 13 hands high, has a blaze and snip, his two hind feet white, no brand, and about 3 years old. Any person claiming the said horse may apply to Tacitus Gaillard.

Some villainous Aspersions having been shewn on my Character by one Gavin Nicoll; and my Affairs requiring my Departure from this Province so soon, that I shall not be able to do myself Justice in the Manner Nicoll is conscious is in my Power; I take this Opportunity of laying before the Public the following Recantation, as drawn up by Nicoll himself, and consequently as favourable to him as he could possibly make it in his Circumstances; which (tho' far from being satisfactory to me) if it wipes off his malignant Aspersions answers the present Intent of

RICHARD BASS DALY.

WHEREAS I have reported, that

Mr. RICHARD BASS DALY did, in the month of September last, run away with a vessel in which I was passenger; and the report having very much hurt the character of the said DALY, I being willing to make every concession in my power, acceptable to truth, do declare, that Mr. JOSEPH HOS-SEY, late of Philadelphia, in whose name the bill of sale and register for the abovementioned vessel or schooner, named Margaret & Mary, were taken out, did always inform me, that the said schooner was his property; but DALY now affirming, that the money for the purchase of the said schooner was by him paid to JOHN SLATER, Esq; attorney at law in Bermuda, the person from whom the same was purchased, and that the register and bill of sale taken out by JOSEPH HOSSEY were only in trust for RICHARD BASS DALY, and it appearing, by the evidence of EDWARD ROBERTS, that the said HOSSEY on Turk's Island, where I left him when I came passenger with Capt.
 BOAZ BELL to St. John's, did settle with DALY to his mutual satisfaction; I do further declare, that I am sorry I should have been so misled by Mr.
 JOSEPH HOSSEY, as it appears from the abovementioned evidence, that there were some private transaction and agreement between him and Mr. DALY, to which I was altogether a stranger; and that, had I known or believed there had been any such private agreement, I never would have reported the said affair in the manner abovementioned. Witness my Hand this 7th of March, 1756 Gavin Nicoll.
